

Target Market Determination

Version 1 dated May 2023

This Target Market Determination (TMD) has been prepared in accordance with the Treasury Laws Amendment (Design and Distribution Obligations and Product Intervention Powers) Act 2019 and associated Regulations. TMDs are designed to assist issuers to ensure that financial products they issue are likely to be consistent with the likely objectives, financial situation and needs of the consumers for whom they are intended (the target market) and to assist distributors to ensure that financial products are distributed to the target market.

The TMD is general in nature and should not be construed as financial advice. Consumers should obtain independent advice prior to acquiring the product to ensure that it is appropriate for their particular objectives, financial situation and needs.

Product	Mortgage Street Liberal II (Full Doc) - Residential

Distribution Conditions	Distribution conditions
	The following distribution channels and conditions have been assessed as being appropriate to direct the distribution of the product to the target market:
	Channel	Conditions
	Mortgage brokers	All applications submitted by accredited mortgage brokers must comply with our policies and procedures issued to accredited mortgage brokers from time to time.
	The distribution channels and conditions are appropriate because: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the product has a wide target market; • our distributors have been adequately trained to understand their DDO obligations; • we rely on existing distributors, methods, controls and supervision already in place; • our approval system has controls in place to flag applicants who may be outside the target market; and • accredited mortgage brokers are subject to a higher duty under BID to ensure that the product is in the best interests of the particular consumer;
Review Triggers	The following review triggers would reasonably suggest that the TMD may no longer be appropriate: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A significant dealing of the product to consumers outside the target market occurs; • A significant number of complaints are received from customers in relation to the product; • A significant number of defaults occur; • There is a material change to the product or the terms and conditions of the product.

Review Periods	First review date: 02 May 2023 Periodic reviews: at least every 12 months from the initial review and each subsequent review.
